

A BEGGARS PARADISE

Charleston After the Quakes and the Scenes Therein.

BISHOP HOWE APPEALS FOR AID.

A Navy Contractor and His Men—New and Brave Hearts Everywhere—A Man with a Bath in His Yacht—A Great Deal of Drunkenness.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 6.—Considerable confidence has been placed in the people today. They have very much better than they did twenty-four hours ago. The scenes which have been exploring the city and adjacent country are the damming earthquakes are over, although there will be rumblings and tremors at intervals during the next two or three weeks. The citizens have argued in their minds and among themselves that it is impossible to suppose that violent shocks will continue. This they have based upon themselves a determination to the quiet as possible and to look the things in the face. The theory as to the cause of the earthquakes first advanced by these making a study of the distances that they are the result of a settling process in the earth, has been generally accepted as true, and this has quieted nerves and caused timid hearts and minds. Very few even of the most devout people outside of the city have been alarmed by any divine wrath or work in the quakes. These have they come to be philosophers, and to think before they run when the shocks come.

There were some more slight shocks today, but they were quiescent. In fact the public here has concluded that shocks are to be felt as a natural sequence of what was experienced on the 2d and 3d, and that there is no use to get excited about a mere matter of routine, as one citizen very truly said. The tents in the parks were well adapted as any time since the quake. In many instances the campers and refugees have made their shelter as secure as possible and intend living in them till their houses are permanently repaired or rebuilt. Old carpets, bedding, cushions, rubber coats and every conceivable material to exclude the sun and rain by day and cold by night is employed in making the camps comfortable. Nearly all of the fruit and vegetable growing on the city was destroyed by the earthquake, and a large portion of the food supply is gone. The city is in a state of panic, and the people are living in a state of alarm. The city is in a state of panic, and the people are living in a state of alarm. The city is in a state of panic, and the people are living in a state of alarm.

SIR FERGUSON SPEAKS FOR ENGLAND.

Prince Alexander Said to be Breaking Down—He Gets England's Sympathy—Great Military Preparations on the Asiatic Frontier.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—In the House of Commons tonight Sir J. Ferguson, Under-Secretary, said in reply to an inquiry that a change in the Government of Bulgaria can occur in accordance with the provisions of the treaty of Berlin only by consent of the signatory powers. England had no separate interests in the matter. The election of a new Prince of Bulgaria would have to be unanimous. The Government had hoped much from the ability and great qualities of Alexander and despised the treachery which had interrupted his reign. It regretted his final decision to abdicate his throne.

AN INTERVIEW WITH ALEX.

An English Correspondent Advises Him to Stick to the Throne.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Daily Telegraph's Sofia correspondent says that Mr. Lascelles, British consul at Sofia, had an interview with Prince Alexander, and tried to persuade him to not carry out at present his decision to abdicate the throne. The German and Russian diplomatic representatives, also conferred with the Prince and urged his abdication as the proper and, indeed, the only course for him to pursue in the circumstances, and in the interest of the welfare of the kingdom of Bulgaria, but of the peace of the continent. The Russian Consul was also presented with a petition by a deputation of Bulgarians similar in tone and character to the request submitted by M. M. Stambouloff and Radosloff, asking further whether Russia will allow the Natural Assembly to elect Prince Alexander's successor.

MAYBURY ENLIGHT.

Fights at the Cassius Last Night—Serious Trouble Feared.

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—Caucuses were held last night for the congressional delegates. Some of the caucuses resulted in rows. In one of them Roundman Herick interfered to preserve the peace, arresting a man who ascribed to the chairmen and was set upon and terribly beaten by the man's friends, who were Maybury men. The feeling is very bitter and there is apprehension of serious trouble at the convention.

A Serious Charge.

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 6.—Considerable sensation has been created here by the arrest of Attorney Wm. W. Osborn, charged with violating the pension law in taking $104 from Elam Mann, of Lansing, for his services. Osborn is Col. Sanford's trusted lieutenant and candidate for prosecuting attorney on the Fusion ticket. The charge is freely made by his friends that the arrest at this time is the result of a conspiracy to deal another blow at the Sanford faction. Commissioner Dodge has released Osborn on his own recognizance. Sensational developments are expected at the hearing, September 19.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

The Bitterest Fight Ever Made in the Valley City.

MANY LADIES DEPOSIT THEIR BALLOTS.

Relly and Tibbitts Defeated—Blair Gets There by a Large Majority—Ulrich, McBride and Ransom Pull Through—The Result.

The school elections yesterday were the most exciting ever held in the city, the interest manifested in many of the wards being fully as great as in the spring elections. A large number of ladies took advantage of their right of franchise and crowded their way to the ballot boxes, without apparently heeding the fumes of bad cigars or the smell from the tobacco choppers. The great fights were made in First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards, and the vote polled was in every case larger than any ever before cast at a school election.

First Ward—There were two candidates in the field, Edgar P. Mills and John A. Schwartz. The former secured a lead on the Holland vote and held the lines steadily coming within a wire of E. P. Mills. The vote resulted as follows: E. P. Mills, 238; John A. Schwartz, 56; total vote, 294. Mills majority, 172.

Second Ward—But little interest was manifested, the people apparently being satisfied with the record made by J. Edward Esch, who received all of the eighty-nine votes cast.

Third Ward—The vote here resulted in a victory for the present incumbent, he receiving fully two-thirds of the vote cast by the ladies. The result was as follows: James Fox, 419; E. P. Sargent, 223; total, 642. Fox majority, 196.

Fourth Ward—The contest was the most spirited in the history of the ward. Warriors were run in all parts of the ward from the time that the polls opened until the close, and the friends of the candidates worked as hard as they could. The result was that 1,433 votes were cast, nearly, if not quite half of which were cast by women. In the upper precinct James Blair received a plurality of 13 votes. The vote resulted as follows: J. P. Ransom, 127; Blair, 21; Clark, 329; Clark's majority, 33. Blair's majority, 13.

Fifth Ward—There were three candidates, Josiah H. Tibbitts, John Burrows and James E. McBride. The vote was a close one and the great Greenback laborer met a Waterloo. Tibbitts ladies deposited their ballots. The vote resulted as follows: J. E. McBride, 144; J. H. Tibbitts, 131; John Burrows, 127; total, 402. McBride majority, 17.

Sixth Ward—There were two independent candidates in the field against J. P. Ransom, the regular nominee. There were 335 votes cast, thirty of them by ladies. Mr. Ransom was elected by a plurality of ten. The vote resulted as follows: J. P. Ransom, 136; Jacob R. Smith, 130; Albert Stonehouse, 75.

Seventh Ward—Four candidates in the field, Geo. B. Relly, the Trustee whose term expired, being badly snowed under. The vote resulted as follows: Geo. B. Relly, 101; Geo. B. Relly, 52; Lorenzo D. Field, 46; Eliza O. Stevens, 49; total, 248. Relly's plurality, 57.

Eighth Ward—The contest here was an unusually close one, and nearly three hundred ladies deposited their ballots. Four hundred and many carried were kept running all day and both candidates got out every voter possible. The result was as follows: Madison J. Ulrich, 45; Edmund J. Shinkman, 41; total vote, 86. Ulrich's majority, 4.
